"Together we can make disciples in new ways."

Native American Discipleship Conference

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...I am about to do a new thing...
Matthew 28:19, Isaiah 43:19

Thursday, Nov 17 – Saturday, Nov 19, 2016

This event will be held at a location TBA very soon.
A brochure including registration form and event location will be emailed to you by August 1st. For now, put this event on your calendar!

<<As Native American Christians, how do we go about making disciples among our own peoples?>>

<<How is the world of 2016 a different place in which to share the hope of Jesus Christ from that of our parents' and grandparents' generations?>>

<<How must we honor and respect the cultures and traditions of our Native American urban and rural communities, reservations, tribes and nations as we seek to offer Christ?>>

<<What kinds of new ministries and new groups can our existing Native American congregations offer to their local communities?>>

We will gather together to talk about these questions and much more!

Pastors of Native American fellowships, churches and ministries whose congregations have shown growth will witness about their congregations and ministries

Registration Fee is $100 and provides 2 nights in double sleeping room, 6 meals (from dinner on Nov 17 through lunch on Nov 19), refreshments during breaks and workshop materials. A limited number of $300 travel scholarships will be provided to assist with travel expenses.
